

Present the 2006 J-1 Summer Work/Travel Program Essay Contest

The U.S. Embassy in Dublin and Delta Air Lines are holding an essay-writing contest. We would like to read about your experiences while in the U.S. on the 2006 J-1 Summer Work/Travel Program and reward a few outstanding stories. Four winners will be chosen.

All winners will receive, compliments of Delta Air Lines, one round-trip economy class ticket on Delta Air Lines to either New York City or Atlanta, GA. An awards ceremony and luncheon will be held at the U.S. Ambassador's residence in Dublin. Winners will also receive two tickets to the 2006 U.S. Marine Corp Ball held in November. The winning essays may be published in a local or national publication. You might even have a chance to be interviewed by the local or national press.

The Rules:

- The essay should be 1500 words or less and describe the contestant's own experiences in the United States while on the Summer Work/Travel Program. Photos may be included within the essay if you so choose.
- Submitted essays become the property of the U.S. government and may be published.
- Terms and Conditions apply for Delta Air Lines flights. Full details will be provided to competition winners.
- Contestants must have received a J-1 visa for the 2006 Summer Work/Travel Program from the U.S. Embassy in Dublin; and must have used the visa to spend the summer of 2006 living and working in the U.S.
- Essays are to be mailed to the Embassy and postmarked no later than October 13, 2006.
- Mail your essay, a copy of your J-1 visa, and the attached entry form to the following address:
